

The Speech Pathologist is a qualified professional who directs, supervises, evaluates, and provides speech therapy based upon a client's individual needs.

Objective: To restore speech, language, swallowing, and/or hearing disorders to the highest level possible, exceeding our customer's expectations.

Qualifications:

- Must be a certified speech pathologist or audiologist; and meet the education and experience requirements for a Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech Pathology or Audiology granted by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association; OR Meet the educational requirements for certification and is in the process of accumulating the supervised experience required for certification.
- Must possess personality traits compatible with the needs of clients requiring services.
- Must possess the character qualities of persuasiveness, compassion, patience, discretion, dependability, and flexibility.
- Must be willing to honor others above themselves and exceed customer's expectations.
- Must be willing to travel extensively.
- Must be able to bend, kneel, climb stairs, transfer, and maneuver a client of fifty(50) pounds or more.